CIGAR THE ABOVE REQUEST IS HEARD da ly in cigar stores, saloous and other places where cigars are sold, for it is an undisputed fact that most smokers prefer a mild cigar and that those whe have for a long time smoked strong cigars, principally imported Manilas, will, after having thoroughly injured the stomach and impaired the nervous system, surely want a mild cigar, if they could find the right kind.

could find the right kind.

How many thousands of smokers who suffer from loss of appetite, headache, nervous irritability, asthma, etc., and who have tried all possible remedies without success, might be cured if they knew that their sufferings were caused by the intemperate use of strong cigars, and that they should only smoke mild and properly prepared ones.

It is a fact that all mild cigars agree well with smokers, for in most cases there is a lack of care in the selection of
